Dear Licensee:

The Distiller's League pulled off another successful trade show on March 14th! This Spring Trade Show was held at the Renaissance in Montgomery and was attended by a total of 107 off-premise licensees and 54 on-premise licensees who ordered 6,122 cases totaling approximately $940,415.00! The Board and I would like to thank all of you who made this trade show such a success. We realize that you are essential to our business and hope that our services and products are meeting your needs. I hope you are continuing to enjoy editions of the Alabama Wine and Liquor Quarterly and are finding the information beneficial to your business. Several new items have been added to our product line. The new listings can be found in this edition. Please check with local stores concerning the availability of these products and, if there is a product that you are interested in but don't find listed, please inquire about special orders.

In order to clear out slow moving merchandise and open up shelf space for promising newcomers, the ABC Board periodically delists certain products and/or sizes. Even though these products will no longer be on our shelves, I would like to assure you that they can still be made available to you. Special orders will be sold by the case only, so please ask any ABC Store sales associate if you need help in ordering.

It is the Board's goal to provide the best service to our customers through modern, convenient outlets and superior product selection in a controlled environment. Customer service remains a top priority and I encourage you to contact my office if you have any questions or need assistance.

After a long, cold and wet winter season, the weather is finally getting warmer and all across the state retailers are anxiously awaiting the summer months. Pool parties, beach trips and afternoons on the lake. I would like to take the opportunity to wish everyone a safe and happy summer and to remind you to sell, serve and celebrate responsibly.

Sincerely,

TEQUILA'S NEW REVOLUTION

Tequila is reaching for new heights with traditional favorites and innovative products.

BY KATE STRANDNESS

Note: This excerpt is printed with permission from the May/June 2012 issue of StateWays—the Beverage Alcohol Merchandising Magazine for Control States.

FRESH TASTING. LIGHT. VERSATILITY AND MIXABILITY. MORE THAN JUST SHOTS. THESE CHARACTERISTICS HAVE HELPED THE TEQUILA CATEGORY EVOLVE INTO WHAT IT IS TODAY.

“There is sophistication toward the category that did not exist a decade ago,” says Andrea Sengara, Global Director, Tequila Don Julio. “The consumer of today is well traveled and versed in spirits such as tequila.” As a result, the category is revolutionizing itself, adding new iterations, redesigning labels to emphasize history in the modern day, and educating on the ways—beyond the simple answer of taking shots—it can be imbibed and enjoyed.

And the products reflect that from premiumization and eye-catching packaging to new products that not only have 100 percent agave but also use fresh ingredients. “The introduction of reasonably priced 100 percent agave tequilas is the primary trend in the category,” explains Joshua Hafer, corporate communications manager for Heaven Hill Distilleries, which imports Lunazul.

SOMETIMES A NEW LABEL OR A BOTTLE REDESIGN IS ENOUGH

TO HOLD THE BUZZ WITHIN THE TEQUILA CATEGORY. [Now] brands are not only unveiling eye-appealing packaging, but they are also releasing new products.

Cinco de Mayo celebrations often revolve around tequila’s favorite cocktail, the margarita, but the holiday is only the start of a summer of tequila celebrations. [Last] summer Patron launched the “Summerology” program designed to promote the spirit’s mixability and versatility . . . through events, a digital experience, retail point-of-sale pieces, printed summer guides, and off-premise sampling.

STRIVING TO EDUCATE TEQUILA FANS WITH THE MOTTO “KNOW YOUR TEQUILA,” TEQUILA DON JULIO HAD INITIATIVES planned around the seasons. “As we look forward to summer, Tequila Don Julio will focus on providing tequila aficionados, industry professionals, and consumers with the essential tips and events to have the ultimate summer experience,” Sengara explains. “We will embrace the ultimate expression of summer cuisine, grilling, by pairing outdoor dining with tequila.” Moving into fall and winter, the focus shifts to the holidays, especially gifts and entertaining.

FROM ADVERTISING SPACE ON MAINSTREAM TELEVISION TO PRODUCT PLACEMENT IN POPULAR TELEVISION SHOWS, tequila brands are for all eyes to see. [And] pop culture meets online technology meets tequila. Brands are going online to socially engage tequila consumers from Facebook and Twitter presences to promotions and contests.

The category is revolutionizing itself, adding new iterations, redesigning labels to emphasize history in the modern day, and educating on the ways—beyond the simple answer of taking shots—it can be imbibed and enjoyed.

TEQUILA—THE PERFECT INGREDIENT FOR SUMMERTIME DRINKS AND INCREASED SALES!

Take advantage of Cinco de Mayo, the increasingly popular festival commemorating the 1862 victory of the Mexicans in their fight for independence, to promote the many ways to enjoy versatile, mixable tequila! Increase your sales by offering your customers a variety of silver, gold, aged, and flavored tequilas and suggest they try them on their own, in shooters, in popular cocktails—or to create their own special summertime drinks.

PREMIXED COCKTAILS AND LIQUEURS

AS MUCH AS ANY OTHER CATEGORY, RUM LENDS ITSELF TO EXPERIMENTATION IN FLAVORS, OF COURSE, BUT ALSO IN PRESENTATION.

Take Bacardi Classic Cocktails Light, a new line of low-calorie, ready-to-serve beverages. Bacardi has long offered RumRummers, Hurricanes, and other rum-based cocktails in ready-to-drink-variety, but latching onto the low-calorie drinking option now, the company has joined forces with mom, actress, and party host Busy Philipps to promote the drinks.

Light seems to be the new favorite rum enhancement. Malibu Caribbean Cosmo Light replaces the brand's Caribbean Cosmo offering, although the other flavors of Malibu cocktails continue to be sold—Tropical Sea Breeze, Tropical Mojito, Rum Punch, and Melon Margarita.

Of course, ready-to-drink cocktails are not the only enhanced way to drink rum. Brands like Castries Peanut Rum Crème Liqueur from St. Lucia and RumChata, a cream spirit reminiscent of the Mexican almond-based beverage horchata, have found favor among many consumers as a chilled after-dinner drink or even a cocktail ingredient. RumChata is bottled from a made-from-scratch cream liqueur recipe that uses Caribbean rum and Wisconsin dairy cream with a touch of natural cinnamon, vanilla, sugar, and other flavors. Brand owners are also promoting RumChata Iced Coffee, BananaChata, and Coconut Cream Pie Martini.

GET READY FOR INCREASED PROFITS WITH READY-TO-SERVE BEVERAGES

Help your customers get ready for the laid-back days of summer by promoting ready-to-serve cocktails, which now include appletinis, Bahama mamas, cosmos, daiquiris, “hard” lemonade, hurricanes, iced coffees and teas, mai tais, margaritas, martinis, mojitos, mudslides, piña colodas, and punches.

To make these packaged drinks taste just-made fresh, encourage people to serve them in chilled or frosted glasses. Chill glasses by placing them in the refrigerator for at least an hour; frost glasses by dipping them in water and placing them in the freezer for at least 30 minutes.

Also suggest adding simple fresh garnishes such as slices, wedges, or chunks of in-season fruit.

AMERICAN WHISKEY TRENDING UP

The popularity of bourbon and American straight whiskey continues to grow, with the introduction of new expressions, boutique bottling, and flavored offerings.

BY ROBERT PLOTKIN

Note: This excerpt is printed with permission from the September/October 2012 issue of StateWays—the Beverage Alcohol Merchandising Magazine for Control States.

AS THE ADAGE GOES, PEOPLE DRINK IN GOOD ECONOMIC TIMES AND BAD. IT SEEMS ESPECIALLY TRUE FOR THE AMERICAN WHISKEY CATEGORY, which according to the Beverage Information Group grew an impressive 3% to 15.7 million 9-liter cases in 2011. [In the control states, American straight whiskey gained a more robust 4.5% overall.] Prosperity will eventually return, but the question remains—will American whiskeys continue to successfully compete with other spirits on the world stage?

“We’re excited about the growth potential for the American whiskey category,” says Chris Bauder, general manager of US Whiskies at Beam Global. “Consumers continue looking to expand their spirits repertoire, and with all of the bourbon innovations we are seeing, they are discovering the fantastic quality, versatility, and different tastes available within the category. There is a level of pride among the category’s pioneers, including Bill Samuels and Fred Noe, in the fact that their products stand up to Scotch and Irish whiskeys in the minds of consumers and that this uniquely American spirit is getting unprecedented demand from whiskey drinkers across the world.”

Curious about what’s behind the steady growth of American whiskeys, we polled our experts and came up with the five major trends that are behind the uptick in our indigenous whiskeys.

DOUBLE BARRELED AND WOOD FINISHED

A growing trend with the category is transferring traditionally aged bourbon from charred American oak barrels into a different variety of oak—such as French oak or maple wood—or one that was used previously to mature wine or a different type of spirit—be it cognac, sherry or port, chardonnay, etc. Whiskeys derive most of the flavor and all of their color from being aged in wood. Finishing a whiskey in a different type of wood is an artisanal twist that greatly affects the flavor of the finished product.

LIMITED-EDITION RELEASES

Few things pique consumer interest more than scarcity. It is certainly true for aged spirits. The allure for aficionados is when that lot of whiskey has been sold, it is gone and will not be replicated. It’s the category’s version of “here today, gone tomorrow.” continued on page 18

THE FLAVORS OF AMERICA

The resurgence of American cocktails has everything to do with delivering bright, brilliant flavors, so it's little wonder that American distillers have begun creating whiskeys and whiskey-based liqueurs with new and enticing flavor profiles. The results have been extremely well received.

Straight rye whiskeys share a common heritage as uniquely American products with enticing aromas and brilliantly flavored palates, both of which they possess in generous supply. They are whiskeys with broad shoulders and a lot of personality, a character no doubt molded from our collective national self-image. Fueling its revival is the ongoing cocktail renaissance and the rise of the mixologist.

Extended Aged American Whiskies

There is a point of diminishing returns with every barrel of aging whiskey, which means that leaving whiskey in a barrel longer doesn't necessarily mean that it will continue to improve. It's a delicate process that is as much science as it is art. That said, there are increasingly more whiskeys on the market being aged 18 years or older. Only the most careful and expensive distilling method and aging techniques can be used to create a hand-crafted whiskey of this caliber.

SINGLE BARREL BOTTLINGS

There is something compelling about a single barrel bourbon. As the name implies, the whiskey is drawn from a single barrel and when that individual cask is emptied, that's it. In short, the whiskey is a slice of life never to be duplicated.

American whiskey is constantly reinventing itself and is on track to grab an increasingly larger share of the popular limelight. They are loaded with big complex flavors and have about the most captivating aroma of any whiskey. Their mixability, affordability, and easy-to-appreciate character seem to be what consumers are looking for.

PROMOTE COCKTAILS TO SELL WHISKEY

The rich flavors and mixability of American whiskeys make them ideal for a wide variety of mixed drinks. Encourage your customers to try different brands and expressions of American whiskey in their favorite cocktails, including these popular recipes.

Whiskey and Soda

Serve in a tall chilled glass.

*2-2½ ounces whiskey
Cola, lemon-lime, or other soda of choice, chilled
Slice of lemon, lime, or other fruit*

Pour the whiskey into the prepared serving glass over fresh ice. Fill the glass with cola or other soda of choice; do not stir—the bubbles will mix the ingredients. Garnish with the fruit.
